

MAQUIS

Design by
Marta Bakowski

Description

The Maquis rug is an African evocation which blends the coloured patchwork of the maquis fronts or the sub-Saharan wax pagnes with their geometric or symbolic motifs, different tuft lengths depending on the various patchwork elements, and different-coloured fringes - fuchsia and green - at its two extremities. We see, too, the stylised silhouette of two bar stools beside a very simple list menu descriptions : YAOURT (yoghurt), CAFÉ (coffee), THÉ (tea), which are typical of the maquis restaurants' hand-painted signs.

A little slice of convivial African life for your home...

Hand tufted, sculpted wool rug with 4 different tuft heights. Finished with fringes at both extremities. Available in a single multicolour version. For dimensions, please allow for a tolerance of +/- 3 % in terms of length and width.
